

I am outraged that the nothing has been done about Sinclair's clear attempt to sway public opinion under the guise of a "news" story. Considering the documentary is not new nor brings to light anything new, it seems hard to justify this as anything less than a bloated campaign commercial. Furthermore, Sinclair's ideological bias has been evident since its actions to censure ABC Nightline for naming those Americans who lost their lives in Iraq. Please rectify this situation.